

Barbara J. Creech, Director of Administration

Barbara J. Creech was named Director of Administration for the Ohio Housing Finance Agency (OHFA) in January 2004. In her capacity as Director, Ms. Creech is responsible for the day-to-day operations at the Agency including, human resources, building facilities and equipment, record retention, fleet vehicles and maintenance. Ms. Creech joined OHFA in August 1998 as the Manager of Administration. Previously Ms. Creech served as the Executive Assistant to the Governor, State of Ohio, from 1988 through 1990 and as part of the Governor's Strategic Planning staff from 1983 through 1984; and, as Executive Assistant to the Director of the Ohio Department of Development from 1985 to 1988 and 1991 to 1998. Prior to her state service, Ms. Creech was employed in the private sector working in the areas of marketing, sales and administration. She attended The Ohio State University and Wright State University majoring in education.